

Celebrate Hispanic Heritage Month

Teacher Information

There is always something new when you shop at MrE's History Emporium. There single day assignments, chapter assignments, history month assignments. You can find World history items, American history items, Louisiana history items (my long-time favorite) and U.S. States history items.

The store is never closed and I run sales almost monthly depending on the events that are "currently" happening around my own state or region of the country.

I recently completed a new set of history month projects which covers everything from Juneteenth to Confederate/military to Women's to Hispanic-Heritage history to Asian-Pacific history to Jazz history months plus others. They are all CHEAP but might give your class something else to work towards wither it's Extra Credit or a fill-in grade. They are all interesting. Check them out.

This assignment ask students to read, pull information that they may not have known or thought about and write in down (which helps them remember) and long term helps them understand why we study history – which most test tend to ignore,

There are several ways to get students to research women in your textbook (which most of them don't have any or make very little mention of them), so see the librarian, or do a google places to begin their research for them staying with mainly edu. sites or state run sites such as:

(<http://www.tulane.edu/~wc/text/pathfinders/LAwomen.html> <http://www.loyno.edu/~history/journal/1985-6/doherty.regoodatsehtm>). These are good places to begin their research.

There are items like Hispanic ABCs, an Acrostic Poem, and a Library Research Sheet and a Stamp.

Louisiana's Hispanic-Heritage History Month Acrostic Poem

DIRECTIONS: Acrostic poems are fun and easy to write. An acrostic is formed when the first letter in each line spells out a message, reading top to bottom. The message could be a single word or even a whole sentence. Women's History Month honors those women who have made a mark on Louisiana history and inspired others. For this acrostic poem, think of a word that starts with each of the letters in "Hispanic," then write it on the line next to that letter.
