TEACHER NOTES

This is just a little item I began years ago as an exercise to do something that would get my students to write. It was never a task to get 'grades', just a writing exercise, and it has worked. I have included a blank set of cards so that you can make your own. Email your own ideas so that we can exchange and share ideas for our Louisiana history students. We have also 'played a game' between students – for them to guess which fact is true.
