Teacher Notes from my own experiences

This activity allows student to fill in what they "know" wither it is at the beginning of the year, anytime during the middle or as an end of the Year review. I have used it at each part of the year. There are no 'right' answers, just what they know at the time. Each activity is very open ended which I have always liked.

At the beginning of the year it allows me to just know what they know and what I do or don't need to cover. In the middle it gives me a better understanding of what they got or need to review. At the End of the Year it lets me know if I did a good job teaching or if they got it all.

Here are SEVEN of my favorite class proven items that have all been successful in their own way. Give each a try and let me know which you like for your own class(es).
