Louisiana Women in History

Finally, I got this item out and into someone else's classroom before the month is over. I also have another project that is in the works – for this month – but it will be ready maybe in time for next year – Louisiana Instruments.

I have ALWAYS wanted this Women's history for each spring but just never got around to it. Now it is ready and available for every Louisiana history teacher. The only problem is right at this time of the year – March – everyone is thinking about the upcoming tests.

But these worksheets can at least be used somewhere, some how, maybe AFTER the tests. At least I will. I just want my students to know something about the women of Louisiana.
