

The Acadian Struggle Journey

Pretend that you are an Acadian that has been exiled from Nova Scotia. You have been forced to leave your home, leave most of your possessions and have possibly been separated from you family. The English have forced you on a boat and you have no idea where or when that boat will land.

Directions: Each night write a journal of 5 to 8 sentences that describes your journey, your feelings, your fears, and anything that happens while you are in exile. You may type or handwrite your journals. You will have a total of 5 journal entries.

Follow the format / rubric below:

_____ / 10 pts: Cover page with your real name and your French name

_____ / 15 pts: Date included on each entry. The year is 1755 and you make up a day and month for each entry.

_____ / 60 pts: 5 total journals that are 5-8 sentences per entry that describes your journey, etc.

Each entry details & relates to the Acadian Struggle. Grammar and spelling needs to be checked.
